1. In September 1952 officials of the Chinese Communist Central and South China Military and Administrative Committee were routing all supplies which were intended for the Democratic Republic of Vietnam (DRV), with exception of military supplies, to specific warehouses in Kwangsi. At these warehouses JMP prices were computed, based on the average market price, before the goods were delivered to the DRV transport personnel based in Kwangsi.
2. The following prices were in effect on supplies delivered to DRV offices in Kwangsi in September 1952. They do not include the two percent transportation charge.

Rice (medium grade)	1 ton <sup>1</sup>	JMP 635,000
Soybeans	1 ton	604,000
